Capitol Steps bring satire to the Seacoast

The Housing Partnership presents Capitol Steps at the Music Hall on Saturday, January 31, 2009 for their 11th annual concert supporting affordable housing.

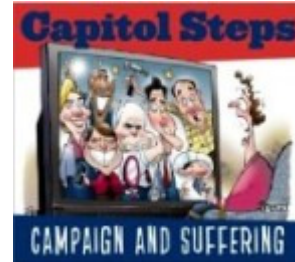

The comic troupe of former congressional staffers dig into the headlines of the day, create song parodies and skits to create their own special brand of satirical humor that is as popular in Peoria as it is on Pennsylvania Avenue.

With their new album, "Campaign and Suffering", and cutting comic satire in hand, Capitol Steps is guaranteed to tickle the Portsmouth audiences' political funny bone.

Performances begin at 5pm and 8pm. Tickets are available from the Music Hall box office at 28 Chestnut Street in Portsmouth, by calling (603) 436-2400 or at themusic hall.org. Prices range $20 - $50.

Concert proceeds benefit The Housing Partnership's nonprofit mission is to strengthen communities by creating diverse housing opportunities, utilizing innovative approaches to development, practicing strong stewardship of our housing, and leading with visionary advocacy. We envision communities that offer "housing for everyone." www.housingpartnership.org.
