

Ingram joins housing board

April 20, 2008 6:00 AM

PORTSMOUTH — The Housing Investment Fund recently welcomed Dick Ingram of Portsmouth and Rosemary Heard as directors to its board.

Ingram serves as executive director of The Housing Partnership, a community-based nonprofit affordable housing developer and provider of housing-related services in the greater Seacoast region of New Hampshire and southern Maine. Previously, Ingram was president of the Greater Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce.

Heard is president and CEO of CATCH Neighborhood Housing, a nonprofit organization offering a full spectrum of housing services in Merrimack County. Heard brings development management and asset-management experience to the board.

Heard and Ingram were appointed by New Hampshire Housing Finance Authority, co-creator of the Housing Investment Fund. Visit www.housinginvestmentfund.org.

