

Partnerships

Our monthly e-newsletter providing you with updates on our work, programs and projects and links to newspaper coverage from the previous month.

Capitol Steps post-primary laugh fest

CAPITOL STEPS returns for a 10th anniversary concert! Known for their unique brand of political satire, the comic troupe from D.C. wins the Seacoast's popular vote! CAPITOL STEPS returns to the Music Hall on Saturday, February 2, 2008, performing at 5pm and 8pm.

Tickets are available exclusively from the Music Hall Box Office by mail at 28 Chestnut Street Portsmouth, NH 03801 or by calling (603) 436-2400 or go online at www.themusichall.org. Event proceeds support our affordable housing programs. To listen to clips, visit www.capsteps.com.

Bookstore tackles affordable housing.

December 26, 2007 - Riverrun Bookstore is starting a program to raise awareness about the need for affordable housing in the Seacoast, benefitting six local nonprofits addressing the issue. read full article

TD Banknorth donates nearly $60,000 to charitable groups in N.H.

December 19, 2007 - Through the TD Banknorth Charitable Foundation, TD Banknorth recently donated a total of $59,500 to several charitable organizations in

New Hampshire. read full article

Seacoast: Jobs are there, housing isn't.

December 11, 2007 - The Workforce Housing Coalition of the Greater Seacoast believes that the lack of affordable housing for workers threatens the region's economic viability. The Business and Industry Association believes the same. read full article

Economic Development Commission talks about region's workforce housing.

December 10, 2007 - The need for more workforce housing opportunities headlined Friday's Economic Development Commission meeting and prompted many city officials to speak their minds about the growing problem in the Seacoast region. read full article

In this issue

---

Capitol Steps post-primary laugh fest.

Bokstore tackles affordable housing.

TD Banknorth donates nearly \$60,000 to charitable groups in N.H.

Seacoast: Jobs are there, housing isn't.

Economic Development Commission talks about region's workforce housing.

---

The Housing Partnership is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization whose mission is to strengthen communities by providing quality affordable housing and related services for low and moderate-income residents of the Greater Seacoast region of New Hampshire and Maine.
A SECURE FUTURE BEGINS AT HOME.

